

Campus Rep for BarMax Bar Review on the iPhone

The founders of BarMax come from Harvard Law School, Harvard Business School, UCLA, and other top institutions, and the advisory board spans most of the top 10 law schools (Harvard, Georgetown, Northwestern, etc). You will get one-on-one exposure and a working relationship with these notable professionals, and you will have fun doing it.

<http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/content/article/2010/01/17/AR2010011701824.html>

http://www.pcworld.com/article/187122/1000_iphone_app_returns_with_barmax.html

http://abovethelaw.com/2010/01/lawyer_of_the_day_mike_ghaffar.php

<http://www.techcrunch.com/2010/01/17/most-expensive-iphone-app-barmax/>

http://www.abajournal.com/news/article/1000_iphone_app_offers_a_barbri_alternative_for_calif_test_takers/

Your primary responsibilities will be the standard tables, flyers, etc--generally getting the word out. Compensation is extremely competitive and you will get a cash bonus for every student from your school that signs up, as well as free tuition for your own course (saves you $4,000!)

We are also accepting applicants to be business strategy interns to work on the business generally. Note: campus reps gets paid more (you can do both if you are interested).

Apply by emailing your resume to info@getbarmax.com with a brief note (3-5 sentences) stating your interest and what phone you own.

iPhone or iPod Touch ownership is a big plus, but not required.